Organization of Chinese-Americans of Greater Cleveland

What is OCA

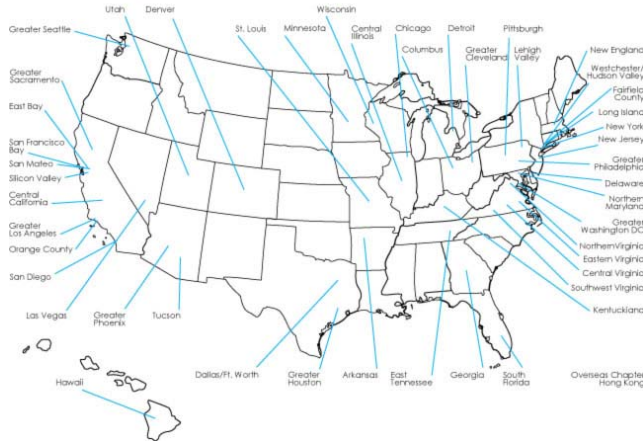

OCA is a non-profit, non-partisan, national organization dedicated to advancing the social, political, and economic well-being of Asian Pacific Americans in the United States.

Founded in 1973 as the Organization of Chinese Americans, OCA aims to embrace the hopes and aspirations of nearly 13 million Asian Pacific Americans in the United States.

OCA is engaged in organizing its over 84 chapters and college affiliates across the nation to develop both leadership and community involvement.

OCA's base in Washington, D.C. gives the national office an effective vantage point for monitoring legislation and policy issues affecting Asian Pacific Americans.

What is OCAGC

The Organization of Chinese Americans of Greater Cleveland (OCAGC), founded in 1983, serves the continually growing Asian/Pacific American community of Northeast Ohio and works with other organizations and communities to promote ethnic awareness and cultural diversity.

Outreach Initiative:

OCA IMAGE TV

OCA IMAGE TV OHIO, a High Energy Magazine-styled 30 minutes Television show. OCA IMAGE TV will focus on local Asian-American cultural diversity and prospective on Economic, Social, Arts and Cultural Development.

The show will provide the community at large a better understanding of Asian culture. Each episode will include segments on a variety of diverse topics related to economic, education, culture, traditions, food, health and beauty, fashion, sports, arts and entertainment, news, and current issues as well as upcoming events.

OCA IMAGE TV's pilot episode will showcase the Lunar New Year. This episode will illustrate how the various ethnic Asian cultures in northeast Ohio celebrate the Lunar New Year through pictures and videos. The show may include a cooking demonstration as well as a spotlight on a local Asian Pacific American individual and/or event. Each episode will focus on a different theme including Asian Weddings, Arts and Entertainment, Health and Medicine, and others.
